

Front Assembly

Description

The front assembly is critical for the rigidity of the front compartment and front wheel alignment, as it is integrated with the front wheelhouse. During installation, the dimension shown in the body dimensional drawings. Welding must be performed by using the aluminum alloy MIG welder. Perform the trial welding first following the welder manufacturer's instructions, then weld properly.

NOTE: Do not section frame rails except at manufacturers seams.

Mass Production Body Welding Diagram

